Regarding: United States v. Raheem J. Brennerman, 17 Cr. 155 (LAK)
United States v. Raheem J. Brennerman, 17 Cr. 337 (RJS)

Dear A.U.S.A. Sobelman:

I write further to my correspondence dated March 4, 2022, advising you of the designated recipient for my properties in your custody. I am now submitting this correspondence to you so that you may follow-up with your agent, Mr. Justin McCabe Ellard.

I was advised that your agent, Mr. Ellard had been in contact with my aunt and designated recipient for my properties, following my March 4, 2022 correspondence to you, however following their initial conversation, she (my aunt) has been endeavoring to speak with Mr. Ellard without any luck. She has left several messages on his cellphone voicemail without any response from Ellard.

Today, I provided my aunt with Mr. Ellard's office contact number, (212)-637-2267 in addition to his cellphone number, (646)-385-5213 which she already had. I would be grateful if you could ask Mr. Ellard to follow-up with her as we are keen to finalize arrangements for receiving my properties as per the inventory list which you sent to me in November 2021.

Should you require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me by writing.

Thank you and best regards,

Dated: March 16, 2022

White Deer, Pa. 17887-1000

Respectfully submitted

/s/ Raheem J. Brennerman
